

St George Girls High School Centenary Book

Celebrating 100 years of educating gifted girls
1916 – 2016

Pre Order and Sale of Centenary Book

Ms Pauline Curby has been commissioned by St George Girls High School to write a book commemorating the centenary of St George Girls High School. Former teacher Pauline Curby has worked as a freelance professional historian since the early 1990s and has undertaken consultancies in oral history, environmental history and heritage, as well as writing a number of commissioned histories. Her publication Randwick won the NSW Premier's Award (Regional and Community History), 2010.

This lively, well illustrated centenary book reflecting the ethos of the school will be in great demand. It will be published by NewSouth Publishing and will be officially launched at a gala dinner on 11th November 2016. As the book will have a limited print run it will be essential to pre order and pay for your copy. The cost of this book is $70.00.

To secure your copy of the centenary book please complete this form and email to stgeorgegi-h.school@det.nsw.edu.au OR mail to St George Girls High School, Victoria Street, Kogarah, NSW 2217. You will be notified when the book is available to be picked up from the school.
